

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH. - Nov. 29, 1895.

District Court.

The following business was conducted in the First district court Wednesday:

Thus, Kennedy pleaded guilty to burglarizing the saloon of Wm. Woods at Eureka on the 1st of November. Kennedy and another had, while attempting to break open a safe, the other party escaped and the implication among the officers, as stated by Attorney Anderson and Deputy Marshal Berry, is that Kennedy had only succeeded in breaking into the safe. He stated to the court that his home was in California and that he came to Eureka Dec. 14th about six weeks ago, but had been arrested for anything more serious than fighting before this time. Judge Johnson sentenced him to two years in the penitentiary.

The grand jury reported two indictments under the laws of the Territory and under the laws of the United States, and that the following cases were:

People vs. Peter Hansen, grand larceny, U. S. vs. J. H. Bishop, robbery, People vs. J. C. Blodget, burglary, U. S. vs. L. P. Christensen, assault with intent to commit rape; People vs. John M. Johnson, burglary; People vs. George A. Johnson, robbery; People vs. U. S. vs. Johnson Carter, unlawfully operating distillery; People vs. E. C. Canfield, grand larceny; People vs. James Mitchell, robbery.

Notes and Personal.

The names of all offices for the next term, commencing January 1, 1896, have been reduced by the county council as follows: The County Auditor, $1,000 per annum; Sheriff, $2000 to $2000 per annum; County Clerk, from $200 to $200 per annum; Waterworks and Sewer Superintendents, from $700 to $800 per annum; Superintendent of Waterworks and Sewer and Collector of Water Rates, from $225 to $250 per annum; County Engineer, from $400 to $450 per annum; Surveyor, from $350 to $400 per annum.

Elias Wm. Baker of the Second ward departed this life Wednesday morning at the age of 72 years. The cause of his death was an attack of pneumonia. He had been enjoying good health for a short time before his illness. Elias Baker was born in Utah about twenty years ago since which time he has resided in Provo. Funeral services will be held in the Second ward meeting house this forenoon at 10 o'clock.

George T. Bean is up from Highfield. He says it is expected that the Sanpet valley branch of the H. G. W. Mining company will be soon established at an early date. The mining company has some of the best land and money people to grant concessions of lands for deposit rights, right of way, etc. Meetings have been held and preparations submitted in the railway town of Salt Lake City, of which it is thought will be accepted.

Mrs. A. G. Conover, of the Second ward, died Tuesday night at 12 o'clock. The immediate cause of death was a cold which settled on her lungs. Mrs. Conover was the wife of the late A. G. Conover. She was about 43 years old. Her leaves six children and numerous relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

A fifteen-year-old son of Hilary Thomas, of Pleasant Grove, was with an accident about two years ago, which caused the loss of his left leg to decay; and last Wednesday the injured boy was removed by Dr. Allen and Felt of this city. The patient is doing well.

The Mutual Improvement association of the country will hold their State conference Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday evening a concert will be given, in addition to local entertainment. Prof. Nestle and George D. Felt of Salt Lake City, will appear.

The leaders of the public schools and the State Board of Education invited Superintendent of Schools H. R. Hawings in the beginning of October, as a guest of the governor's birthday. An engraving of this was sent.

Thompson's law was quickly satisfied; business houses were closed and religious services held in the Tabernacle and West Temple. A bell was given in the evening by the Democratic church choir in Southworth's hall.

A beautiful monument to the late John W. Turner has been completed by the Beeley Metal Works. It is made from Vermont marble resting on a base of native granite.

John McRae, an Indian merchant, was killed in a peculiar manner near Thompson's City, on Friday. He was selling a big bunch of fresh onions, which he had just bought, when a man who had been following him for some time, shot him through the heart. The man then ran away.

A large, healthy son was added to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson yesterday.

Great distress, an Indian merchant, was killed in a peculiar manner near Thompson's City, on Friday. He was selling a big bunch of fresh onions, which he had just bought, when a man who had been following him for some time, shot him through the heart. The man then ran away.
